Show intro - Theme

Best CDs I currently own, part one.

If on a deserted island with a CD player and a solar power source, which CDs would I want to have?

2 songs from each disc.

This will be a 2 part episode.

Chronological order.

The Misfits - Static Age

Recorded 1978.

Loved by millions.

Classic and great.

Some Kinda Hate

Last Caress

Minor Threat - Complete Discography.

Recorded between 1981-1983.

Godfathers of straight edge hardcore. Odd for me, but awesome and raw.

Filler

Out of Step

The Pogues - The Best of the Pogues

Recorded between 1984-1991.

Dog through painting on cover.

Godfathers of punk edge irish. Many bands spring from them, like the Tossers, Flogging Molly, anything of that ilk.

Fairytale of New York

Streams of Whiskey

Guns N Roses - Appetite for Destruction

Release 1987.

A bit mainstream, but awesome.

Nuff said.

It's So Easy

My Michelle

Sloppy Seconds - Destroyed

Released 1989.

Classic bad attitude obnoxious midwest punk rock.

Black Mail

Steal your Beer

Mid-show Interruption

Can we fuck off with the ice bucket shit?

Remember when people did their share without needing recognition for it from the world?

Fuck ALS, it sucks.

All the toolbox ice bucket bullshit sucks too.

Try and do your part without needing a pat on the back from all your FB friends.

Bad Religion - Against the Grain

Released 1990.

Hard to choose, such a vast selection.

Old punky shit is great, newest stuff is really great as well.

Kinda nerdy, but I've always been into it.

Well written, well thought out.

Flat Earth Society

Walk Away

Social Distortion - Somewhere Between Heaven and Hell

Released 1992.

Serious old school. One of my first punk rock influences.

Classic, still at it.

The old shit is really awesome, some of their newer stuff is alright.

Making Believe

Sometimes I Do

The Gits - Frenching the Bully

Release 1992.

Fucking awesome. Get into it if you're not.

Even their live stuff rocks.

Had Mia not been assaulted, there'd be a ton more awesome music in the world.

Another Shot of Whiskey

Second Skin

The Queers - Don't Back Down

Released 1996.

The only reason I can fathom why Green Day made it huge and The Queers didn't is because they named themselves the Queers.

They're great. Poppy-kinda nerd-punk. Still touring today,

Still making solid music in the same vein as this.

Born to do Dishes

Love Love Love

Tiger Army - Power of Moonlite

Release 2001.

A bit of punk, blues, psychobilly feeling here.

Always dug these guys.

Annabel Lee

Under Saturn's Shadow
